

Clallam County Republican Party Precinct Caucus

Schedule of Activities

The temporary chairman shall convene the Pooled Caucus soon after 10AM by:

1. Call to Order for all precincts
2. Pledge of allegiance for all precincts
3. Appointment of temporary pooled caucus secretary
4. Election of permanent pooled caucus chairman
5. Election of permanent pooled caucus secretary
6. Pooled caucus chairman explains the overall process
 - a. Define Pooled precinct caucus versus Individual precinct caucuses
 - b. Primary purpose is to elect delegates & alternates to the county convention who will then elect delegates for the state convention and the state convention will elect delegates to the national convention
 - c. An equal purpose is to begin the process of submitting to the CCRP Platform Committee platform amendments & resolutions. (Let us know if you want if volunteer to be on the committee)
 - i. Submissions can be offered today thru January 27th. Electronic documents are preferred. The county convention will approve or reject all submissions from the CCRP Platform Committee.
 - d. Discussion within the individual precinct caucuses helps you know who you are electing
7. Begin Individual Precinct Caucuses:
 - a. If a precinct has a Precinct Committee Officer, PCO, and the PCO is present, the PCO will be the permanent precinct caucus chairman. If a precinct does not have a PCO or the PCO is absent, a precinct caucus participant will need to volunteer to be the temporary precinct caucus chairman. In either case, temporary or permanent, the precinct caucus chairman will direct precinct caucus participants to:
 - i. Call the precinct caucus to order
 - ii. Appointment of a temporary precinct caucus secretary
 - iii. Elect a permanent precinct caucus chairman, if necessary because of no PCO
 - iv. Election of permanent precinct caucus secretary
 - v. Complete the CCRP 2024 Precinct Caucus Questionnaire
 - vi. Complete the 2024 Non-Binding Presidential Straw Poll
 - vii. Nomination and election of delegate(s)
 1. Nomination and balloting for delegates shall not commence earlier than 10:30AM nor later than 11:30AM. Balloting will continue until all allotted delegates & alternates are elected
 - viii. Nomination and election of alternate delegates (Alternates)
 - ix. Adjournment
